

Tall Tales and Adventures:

Sharing the Choral Experience with SCC

SCC hosts an exciting community celebration of song featuring Guest Clinician

Charles Palella

Students--invited by their music teachers, grades 4-8--join with SCC in a fun and inspirational day of singing that ends with a festive concert open to the public. With a workshop and rehearsals for students, and a workshop, reading session, and rehearsal observation for teachers, the day provides networking, shared learning, new ideas and fun for students from across Central New York. All music teachers, college students, choir directors and students grades 4-8 who love to sing are invited!
